Vocus Settles Class Action

Vocus Group Limited (ASX: VOC) has reached an agreement to settle the class action commenced against it in April 2019 in the Federal Court of Australia.

The settlement of the class action, which is without admission of any liability, is subject to Federal Court approval.

The settlement amount is $35 million inclusive of interest and costs. Vocus will contribute $3.5m to the settlement, which will be reported as a significant item below underlying EBITDA. The remainder of the settlement is fully insured.

Vocus' Board determined that the agreement to settle the class action was a commercial decision made in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.
